COOKING CLASS & HOLY WEEK CELEBRATIONS

Spend the morning at home with Doña Thelma in her kitchen – Doña Thelma has been cooking since she was 12-years old and has been making tortillas since the tender age of ten! She is a kind and patient mother of nine with an inviting nature that will make you feel at home right away. Under her careful instruction you will peel, chop, dice and learn to roast the delicious array of seeds and spices for delicious Guatemalan pepian.

After enjoying the delicious meal you prepared, return to Antigua for more Holy Week festivities and celebrations! Overnight in La Antigua Guatemala at Porta Hotel Antigua or similar.

IXIMCHÉ & LAKE ATITLAN

After breakfast you will set out to the Guatemalan highlands. On route, stop to explore Iximché, Guatemala's first capital of the Maya Kakchiquel people which is now an ancient archaeology site! Stop for lunch before heading down toward Lake Atitlan - with three dormant volcanoes towering in the background and twelve indigenous Maya villages dotted along its shores, you'll soon understand what has inspired authors over the years to describe Lake Atitlan as "the most beautiful lake in the world"!

This evening the choice is yours - relax and enjoy the amenities at your hotel, or head into town for a spot of local nightlife. Overnight at Lake Atitlan at Hotel Atitlan or similar.

SAN JUAN LA LAGUNA & LA ANTIGUA GUATEMALA

After breakfast, enjoy a scenic ride across the lake, to the small lakeside village of San Juan La Laguna. San Juan is a beautiful village where you will visit local art galleries and meet the artists; here the primitive style of naïf painting is predominant and a lot of the colourful paintings and town murals depict traditional ways of Guatemalan life, market scenes, etc. Also, in San Juan you will visit local women's cooperatives and learn all about the process of cotton, from harvesting the cotton, through the process of cleaning it, spinning it into thread and dyeing the threads into a rainbow pallet of colours using all-natural sources of dye such as plants, flowers, fruits and vegetables, ending with the age-old process of back strap loom weaving. After another scenic boat ride, perhaps passing small fishing boats along the way, you will return to Panajachel, for an afternoon transfer back to La Antigua Guatemala. Overnight in La Antigua Guatemala at Porta Hotel Antigua or similar.
